

BIO & CD-DATA FUNKY TAURUS

Originally, Funky Taurus just wanted to sing but accepted George Clinton's invitation to record and produce CDs and records with pleasure. Over time, however, it turned out that it might make sense to have full control instead of managers, so Funky Taurus opened her production company, record company and photo agency and since then had pleasure in her compositions and CDs and the mutual work with George Clinton, all is released via her own companies and online shops.

George Clinton also gave her free hand to produce and publish the new joint projects. In the meantime, she began to paint, draw sketches, filmed and produced videos eg.: for her cooperation with the Shanghai Dance Theatre and TV contributions and for her own TV format, continued to photograph and designed a just to name a few.

While traveling and performing on stage, portraits of VIPs like Snoop Dogg, of course George Clinton, Larry Blackman, Tomi Jenkins, Maceo Parker and many more came into being... and photo exhibitions including selfie and remote photography will be set up.

The own hat collection is for women who go to the racetrack but also made for artists. The sunglasses collection is unisex male female and oversized and very very chic. Quote Funky: "An organized life in which all your own needs are integrated and you can let out fun, is wonderful, besides dancing for breakfast, of course. "

But the biggest fun is always music.

Musical Work

..... EG.: with George Clinton

During school Funky Taurus wrote the song $E=mc^2$... which is the entire summary of the stands of nowadays physics (overviewed by physicists and dedicated to Prof. Stephen W. Hawking) but really started in Detroit based on an invitation by legendary and multiple Grammy winner George Clinton to record, compose and produce records together.

Although the song $E=mc^2$ started the Science Slam movement after having been played in German radios 2005, it can be said it was originally recorded in Detroit and Funky Taurus named it Philosophy Funk because of other new topics to be brought to an audience.

As a producer, composer, and singer-songwriter, a series of CDs with George Clinton and also solo began to be released. Different genres like FUNK, R'nB, Electro, Glitch-HOP and Rap / HipHOP are the preferred styles.....

Magazin Interview Funky Taurus

16 Stadtkind 07/14 TALKING funky taurus GESAMTKUNSTWERK

With hat, sunglasses and brightly painted nails on the go: Funky Taurus presents her new CD "The Brooklyn UFO". You know the black hip-hop, funk and soul scene and stands with the likes of Snoop Dog (middle picture) or George Clinton on you and you.

Trademarks of Funky Taurus

are her big hat, its monstrous Sunglasses and their long and brightly painted nails. The Hanoverian is a musician, Producer, fashion designer, photographer and Businesswoman - but especially a dazzling Person. In conversation with the STADTKIND she speaks about her friendship with P-Funk Legend George Clinton, her hat collection and the theory of relativity.

Tuesday, June 3rd 2014, 9:30 am outdoor terrace Courtyard hotels: undisturbed idyll at mâché. The sun is shining, the birds chirping and a few joggers make their rounds. Nothing unusual this springlike morning, everything absolutely normal. Only this blue plush hat is striking; and these claw-like fingernails – last in seen a similar form in the late eighties with American sprinter Florence Griffith Joyner. Funky Taurus attracts attention themselves. The shrill appearance is the hallmark of the Hanoverian, which brought her hometown to prominence and kept the newspapers, magazines and TV stations also transregional busy : with outrageous outfits and stories about her George Clinton Connection. The encounter with the music legend from America they have a decisive influence, says the slim and petite woman with her figure and looks like a 20-year-old girl. The Pioneer of radio and head of the bands Parliament and Funkadelic she met backstage at a festival in Holland. "George saw me, looked at the fingernails and said: Baby, what's going on "After this meeting Funky Taurus was invited by Clinton to Detroit, to live there with him in his family and was allowed to accompany him to produce in the studio. In the course of the years she met many heroes of black Funk and Soul community as Bootsy Collins, James Brown, Prince, Snoop Dog and Cameo. "I know the whole baggage," she says and thinks the big gangsta rapper, hip-hop Musicians and Soul artists – the evil Boy stuff.

Contact with Clinton is to today intact, and Funky Taurus has now many tracks with him "We understand each other great, and we release on my label "she summarizes their artist's creative Workflow together. Over the pond the two are always connected via Internet and telephone. "I send him compositions of mine, and he adds his voice on it. Or we make a joint Production . "Love or Sex – how else usual with groupies – had never been in the game. "Love is somehow not my thing. It comes and goes and is too boring in the long-term run. I consider myself constantly what I really find great and what has no expiration date. " No expiration date has for her, for example, the funk and soul music that in a small Studio in Vahrenwald she composes and produces in the sorted Category Funky glitchhop / Avantgarde. If Funky Taurus gets going, there's no closing time.

"I know a lot of people who cannot stand my Energy and tempo and they are all happy, when they see me from behind," says the blond-haired woman. She usually gets up in the morning at 4 o'clock and is in the pool not later than 6 am and was "three times around the Block before others get up. " limitations of any kind, be they professional or spiritual in nature, are far away from her. She wants to be free – in work and at her own pace. "Others have always been too slow for me. George is the first person I've ever known working the 24 hours straight as the same identical Person in various fields without brakes. " For her always new projects Funky Taurus does not need too much. Her voice, a great micro, a laptop and various music programs satisfy her quickly to produce, record and mix her new tracks : "The rest is a head thing. "Six CDs are now available, and productions she sells on download platforms like Amazon, iTunes and Spotify. There is also her previously best-known track "E = mc²" to hear – a tribute to the theory of relativity and the physicist Stephen Hawking. Her fashion line is also available via the Internet. 2011 also was the first year for eyewear collection Funky Taurus.

Hats she creates since school days: Those who look for opulent, elegant and unusual Design Creations for a trip to the Racecourses eg. Neue Bult, will find those.

The Hanoverian who is riding since childhood is often seen at racetracks to meet prominents like RTL TV Star Talker Frauke Ludowig to Smalltalk. Funky Taurus, the legal name she does not want to reveal, and has worked as a translator quite leads a normal life, just does not like restrictions. Lone Obstacle in everyday life are her fingernails, which in over the years, have become increasingly longer. But they disturb rare. "What's already everyday? Eat, drink and sleep.

Otherwise I'm working mentally," says the artist who is looking forward to her next encounter with George Clinton on 27 July in the Dutch Club Paradiso is pleased. Will she actually be there with the music icon to stand on the stage? And. Is Funky Taurus a international star or rather the most eccentric Groupie since Cynthia Plaster Caster?

To put her in a box like that is impossible – this Woman – neither cares about age nor concrete data regarding life goals such as home, farm and family matter to her.

But the fact is: Funky Taurus is so iridescent like a bird of paradise shining like a silver fish. And: Funky Taurus somehow brings everything easily under one roof.

REVIEW UFO Le FUNK by GIO Washington aka GOVERNOR G (50cent) producer for 50 cent

Rezension der "Funky Taurus & George Clinton" CD UFO Le F.U.N.K von Governor G (50 cent)

My name is Governor AKA Gio. I have written and performed songs with 50 Cent, T.I., Wyclef Jean and more! My relationship with 50 Cent goes way back. Currently I am in the process of creating my own brand of music, a soulful sound with a modern twist, it's music that you can not only HEAR but music you can FEEL! I'm creating music and lyrics that will make the hairs on your arm stand up or give you chills, which is why I respect what FUNKY TAURUS is doing. Her brand of music is an interesting hybrid of characteristics from the past with an interesting peak into the future of music. Her song "Brooklyn UFO" sounds just as it is so cleverly named. This song is will surely allow you to keep your 'radio blasting'the UFO like sounds that surround your ears while her soft toned voice peers thru is like a "trippy" ride thru another demension in time, both future and past! It's hynotic, it's sexy and at the same time "bumping your speakers." This song lulls you into a transe so to speak. Funky Taurus definitely knows how to set the mood on this tune! George Clinton is an ICON in our world of music and that fact that he chose to team up with Funky Taurus and lend his experience and creativity is a testament and extreme compliment to her musical ear and talent! F_U_N_K_Y, Funky Taurus is surely in the house! This type of effort to break the stereotypical lines of music we hear brings on a fresh approach to the future of music. The fact that the musical productions and collaborations of Funky Taurus and George Clinton are actually made by two people that know the theory of music and are not just two "beatmakers" is even more refreshing. I respect the sampling art of music but there's nothing like listening to music created by producers that actually know what the note "A" or "B/flat" is. I think through our fastly expanding culture of the digital era, it has almost disabled people in knowing the theory of music. Anyone can tap out a beat to a tempo and quantize it to stay consistent but bringing out emotion, creating mood swings and creating dynamics within the music is the mark of a true PRODUCTION! Funk is not DEAD! In a business world that thrives on a quick dollar and trends that die out from summer to summer, FUNKY TAURUS has created a sound that is TIMELESS and pure!
